SHOPPING ONLINE

NZ is now producing some great websites for shopping online, so here's a few to get you started.

Is it safe to shop online?

- Make sure the site uses SSL secure encryption when you place your order. Check for the closed padlock in the corner of your screen, especially when entering credit card details.
- Make sure they have a phone number you can call if you have any trouble
- Print a copy of your receipt
- Check for signs that the company is credible. Do they offer information on ordering, postage, and returns? Do they have a physical address?
- If you don't get the goods you ordered, and you paid by credit card, you should contact your bank immediately.

- Always check your credit card statement carefully, and if charges are incorrect, or there are unauthorised charges, contact your bank.
