Unlimited Quicksilver Email addresses

Did you know that all Quicksilver flatrate internet accounts now come with unlimited Quicksilver email addresses? You can also now manage your Quicksilver email addresses online, so you can add and delete addresses yourself, through our Members website at www.quicksilver.co.nz/members

Each flatrate internet account comes with up to 10 mailboxes, and mailboxes can have unlimited Quicksilver email 'aliases' allocated.

This means that you can set up a separate mailbox for everyone in the family, and do it all online without the need to ring us.

FREE Domain Parking

If you've thought about registering a domain name for yourself or your business, did you know that you can register a new domain, or transfer your existing domain to Quicksilver, and park it FREE until you're ready to use it.

Once you're ready, we have some very economical hosting packages, from $29.95 a month including a flatrate dialup account, or add $10 a month to any Quickfire Broadband plan.

.NZ domain registration is $49.50 per year, .com is US$20 per year.

www.tickle.co.nz

Tickle is here to change the world with a new brand of photo processing that will blow you away. Tickle has made it quicker and easier to get photos from both film & digital cameras, plus they've created a bunch of new ways to enjoy them.

You may have seen the blue ticklePods (pictured) popping up around Auckland. This is the quickest way to drop off a film or copy your digital images from memory card or CD (it can load hundreds of digital photos in less than a minute). Best of all, it costs nothing!

Tickle then posts your photos onto their website (www.tickle.co.nz) where you can play with your photos to your hearts content in your own time. Preview and edit them, share with friends (all for free), then print the ones you like and order cool tickle gifts. You can also upload your photos directly from your PC with the turbo upload function which is great for people with Quicksilver Broadband DSL.

Ever wondered why photo companies only give you 6x4 photos? Tickle prints photos from 5.3x4 (best for digital cameras) right up to 10x15 plus they offer a range of personalised gifts like photo mugs, mouse pads and jigsaw puzzles even beautiful hardcover 'tickleBooks' to celebrate your most colourful moments. Once you've ordered, just relax. Tickle delivers right to your door. No more standing around for ages at a kiosk with your treasured moments in full view of strangers, no need to return to the shop to pick up your prints. Tickle will also store your photos on their website so you can reorder at any time without having to trawl through CD's or negatives. This means that digital customers now have an easy way to print their photos, and film customer get all the benefits of digital, because you only pay for the ones you like.

QUICKSILVER / TICKLE OFFER

Sign up for free on the tickle website (or by using a ticklePod) and all new customers to tickle receive 10 free 6x4 prints. PLUS, place an order for any quantity of prints before May 31, & tickle will credit your account with the same amount which you can use up to the end of June. Order 20 prints (of any size), get 20 free. Order 200 prints, get 200 free!

Simply quote the Tickle Partner code QUICK1 when ordering.
